

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time, June 19, 2016

In today's Gospel Jesus tells his disciples that if they wish to follow him they must deny themselves and take up his cross daily. In Jesus' time the cross was not something nice or cool that one could hang on the wall or around one's neck. It was an instrument of torture and execution. His point: We are to lay down our lives and let him take control. Good stewards hand over their lives to Jesus no matter the cost. They realize that all they take with them into the next life is their relationship with Christ Jesus. What are we pursuing? A life that tries to bring fulfillment to ourselves or a life that brings us closer to Jesus?

Please fill out the offering envelope and drop it in the basket in front of the Altar this week. The card is yours to send to your special Dad. This is a nice way to remember your father either living or deceased or a special person in your life, on his day, by sending a Spiritual Bouquet!

Ahhhh Summertime.....and the living is easy! But the bills don't go on vacation. Please keep up your weekly budget contributions even the weeks you are away.
