

This coming Sunday we celebrate the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time. We read from the Gospel of Luke 16:19-31. In Luke's gospel reading for today, Jesus taught the Pharisees an important lesson by telling them the story of Lazarus and the rich man. Lazarus was a very poor man who suffered greatly. When he died, Jesus said, "he was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham." In the same story, we hear of a rich man who lived with great wealth while Lazarus suffered. Upon his death, we learn that he was "in torment." The rich man in the story asked Abraham to send Lazarus to warn his family so that they could change their ways and not be subjected to the eternal suffering he faced. But Abraham declined, saying, "If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Sometimes, we are like that rich man and his family. We know Christ's teachings and the Church's commandments, and yet we ignore the suffering of those around us and break those rules by sinning. Let's pray together for the strength to hear Jesus' message in this gospel passage and to change our hearts and lives today. Prayer: Jesus, your teachings call us to a new way of seeing the familiar world around us. Please give us clarity and energy to see and to serve those who suffer. Amen
