

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 30, 2016

The Gospel story of Jesus' encounter with Zacchaeus makes for an ideal stewardship reflection, so does today's first reading from the Book of Wisdom. Good stewards have faith in, and give thanks for, an almighty and powerful God who transcends the universe, but who gives personal attention to every human being. God loves his creation, his people. He lives in them, and through his Holy Spirit, instills a fundamental goodness in them. Good stewards recognize this movement of the Spirit as a gift, and make efforts to cultivate this gift and grow in their faith. Take time this week to stop and look around you, be aware of God's awe-inspiring creation, and give thanks for God's loving care and concern for each of us.

November is to Remember the Faithful Departed

During the month of November, we are called in a special way to remember our loved ones who have gone to their rest. The month of November especially All Souls Day is a traditional time for visiting graves of loved ones, as is the anniversary of death. Envelopes will be available this weekend to list the names of those who have died. These are placed in the box in front of the altar for our own memorial during the month. Let us remember the Souls in purgatory in our prayers and when they get to heaven they will surely intercede for us, in union with our blessed Mother and all the Saints. Let us continue to pray for those who have gone to their rest this year especially: Dale W. Rose, Antonio Estevao Vieira, Maria Botelho Mendonca, Frank Silva, Rosa Maria Leonardo, Maria A. Fr. Wilderotter will be here the weekend of November 5 & 6 to represent Food for the Poor. This organization was founded on the basis of the Gospel "As often as you did it to one of the least of My brothers and sisters, you did it to Me." Matt. 25:40. They serve the poorest of the poor in 16 different countries. In each face they see the living Christ, who is hungry, thirsty, a stranger & naked. The ministry focuses on the greatest needs of the destitute. Just as our Lord served those society ignored they are there: feeding the hungry, building water wells for thirsty villages, building houses for the homeless. Please support this ministry so they can continue their good works. Envelopes will be available after Mass.
