

This coming Sunday we celebrate the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time. We read from the Gospel of Matthew 20:1-16. Another parable from Jesus continues last week's theme of God's extreme generosity. In this story, Jesus touches on another unfortunate human behavior: We are often jealous when God is kind to people we think do not deserve it. In the Parable of the Vineyard Workers, the landowner hired workers throughout the day some at 9am, some at noon, some at 3pm, and some as late as 5pm. When evening comes, he paid them all the same daily wage! What a strange thing to do! And how unfair! Of course the landowner offered a piercing rebuttal "Am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?" These words require little commentary. Lit it or not, we know exactly what they mean. God can do as he pleases with his blessing, his mercy, and his graces. And the more we are like God, the less this will bother us.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, your teaching cuts to my heart. Free me from the crippling limitations of my own judgment so I may live in the freedom of your generosity. In your name we pray..... Amen
