

This coming Sunday we celebrate the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B. We read from the Gospel of Mark 8:27-35 This week we hear about a key moment when Peter reveals Jesus as the Messiah. It includes, however, a rather shocking statement when Jesus calls Peter "Satan" When our Gospel reading opens, theories are swirling regarding whom Jesus might be. Peter declares the disciples' belief that he is this promised Messiah. Jesus then explains that he must suffer, be rejected, and die. From Peter's Jewish perspective, this is not part of God's promise! So his "rebuke" of Jesus is understandable: Jesus' words do not fulfill expectations, and Peter probably does not want such harm for his friend and mentor. What do you think Jesus wants you to know about himself? How can you respond to trials and suffering that comes your way? Prayer: Dear God, we know our ways do not always match your ways. Please give us your wisdom to see your path for us, to let our own plans be in service to yours. In your name we pray..... Amen
