

This coming Sunday, we celebrate the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. Gospels from Luke 1:1-4.4:14-21 This coming Sunday we hear from two different chapters of Luke's Gospel. We begin with the opening verses of the Gospel. Luke explains that many people have passed on information about Jesus' ministry. These people include eyewitnesses, those who wrote narratives, and early ministers in the Church. Luke makes it clear that he has investigated the events concerning Jesus and will relate them in an "orderly sequence. As we journey with Jesus through Luke's Gospel, we will see him fulfill this prophecy in many ways. Prayer: Thank you, Jesus, for coming to save us. Thank you for sharing your good news with the apostles so they could hand it on, eventually reaching us today. Inspire and empower us to follow Luke's example and share your ministry with others in ways that can bring healing and joy. In your name we pray...Amen
