

Palm Sunday ~April 10, 2022

We hear two Gospel readings today: Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem and the passion story. The people who jubilantly welcome Jesus yell, a few days later, "Crucify him!" Their fickleness contrasts with Jesus' faithfulness. He enters the city riding on a beast of burden, not on a warhorse. In death, he embodies what he has taught: loving and forgiving his enemies; reaching out in mercy to the marginalized (i.e., the repentant criminal); praying with trust to his Father.
