

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ September 11, 2022

In today's First Reading Israel turned aside from God's ways and fell to worshipping a golden calf. Moses implores God's mercy, just as Jesus will later intercede for the whole human race. Like Israel, in our sin we push God away and reject our divine sonship. Yet in His mercy, God comes to Israel and to each of us—as a shepherd to seek the lost and to carry us back to the heavenly feast. “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners,” Paul cries in today's Epistle. These are the happiest words the world has ever known. Because of Jesus, even the blasphemer and persecutor can seek His mercy. In the company of His angels and saints, we rejoice that He has wiped out our offense.
