Hello to my CCD families!

How is your Lent going? Many of us, myself included, start off the season with the best of intentions for this special time of year where we focus on our relationship with God and one another. Be it fasting (giving something up), almsgiving (giving to others) and/or prayer, we start off with eager, willing hearts. As time goes by and the demands of life grab our attention, it is so easy to lapse back into our regular day to day activities and forget to keep up with our Lenten promises. We become discouraged and we end up giving up on ourselves. But guess what? God NEVER gives up on us! If you find yourself in the same boat I find myself in, then I suggest that WE dust ourselves off, forgive ourselves for our human weakness, and get right back to our Lenten obligations. If we do, we know that Easter Sunday will be all the better for it! I'm praying for you! Please pray for me!

As always, contact me should you have any questions or concerns!

God bless you and yours!

What kind of stories did Jesus tell about fruit?

Pear-ables!

As we approach the Sacrament of Reconciliation for our children, I thought it might be nice to focus on Confession and some common questions people have about it...

What sins must I confess?

Find the answer to this question on the CCD tab of the church website!!
