

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time † November 5, 2023

Reflect, today, upon the humility that you need in order to truly love. When you love others with the pure love of God, you will discover within yourself a need to serve. You will see others as objects of your love. You will discover a burning desire to help them, forgive them, be gentle and merciful to them, and to do all you can to help them discover the truth of their own lives so they will, in turn, humbly turn to God. The scribes and Pharisees failed miserably at this mission, and that is one of the reasons that Jesus used them as an example. Do not follow their lead. Seek to take the opposite approach. Seek humility. Seek the truth. If you do, God will use you in powerful ways and will exalt you on high.

November is a time to Remember the Faithful Departed

During the month of November, we are called in a special way to remember our loved ones who have gone to their rest. Let us remember the Souls in purgatory in our prayers and they will surely intercede for us, in union with our blessed Mother and all the Saints. Envelopes are available this weekend to list the names of those who have died. These are placed in the box in front of the altar for our own memorial during the month.

Please pray especially for those our parish has lost since last year:

*Lucy Natal Costa,
Joao Fernando DeSousa,
Jose Antonio Alves,
Nelson F. Ormonde,
Jose M. Oliveira,
Silvina M. Francisco,
Manuel Albino Andrade,

Quinn Marie Oliveira
daughter of Ryan & Cerenade,
Allison Grace Silva

Elijah Duarte Soares son of Steve & Lizete, and Olivia & Victor Zermeno children of Jesus & Bianca.

We pray that they and their families will continue to grow in faith and in the love of Jesus as they remain close to His church.

Just a Reminder: when lifting kneelers, please do so gently, so we can be reverent during the most sacred portion of the Mass - consecration. Thank you for your consideration.

THANK YOU ALL ANGELS
