January 18, 2026 † 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflect today on the moment when John the Baptist's disciples heard him proclaim, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" Like them, strive to see Jesus with new eyes and hopeful anticipation as we begin Ordinary Time. This liturgical season marks the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, and it must also be a renewed beginning of His works in your life. Follow Him without reserve, allowing Him to take away your sins and share in His life and love.

This Week's Featured Feast Day

St. Francis de Sales

Feast Day: January 24

St. Francis de Sales was born in 1567 in the Duchy of Savoy, in what is now France, and from an early age showed a deep love for God and learning. Though his father hoped he would pursue a political or legal career, Francis felt a strong call to the priesthood. He studied law and theology in Paris and Padua, becoming highly educated and spiritually grounded. After much discernment and resistance from his family, he was ordained a priest in 1593, dedicating his life to gentle evangelization and pastoral care.

One of the greatest challenges of St. Francis de Sales' ministry came when he was sent to the Chablais region, where many people had left the Catholic faith. Rather than using harsh arguments or force, Francis patiently preached, wrote pamphlets, and engaged people with kindness and reason. His calm spirit, humility, and perseverance gradually led many back to the Church. This missionary work revealed his core belief that hearts are won through love, not pressure—a principle that would define his legacy.

St. Francis de Sales is especially remembered for his spiritual writings, most notably Introduction to the Devout Life and Treatise on the Love of God. These works emphasized that holiness is not reserved for clergy or religious, but is attainable for everyone in daily life. He encouraged ordinary people—parents, workers, and professionals—to grow in virtue through small acts of love, patience, and faithfulness. Because of his clear, accessible writing style, he was later named the patron saint of writers and journalists.

As Bishop of Geneva, St. Francis de Sales was known for his compassionate leadership and close attention to his flock. He worked tirelessly to reform clergy, promote education, and guide souls with gentleness rather than severity. Together with St. Jane Frances de Chantal, he founded the Visitation Order, which emphasized humility, charity, and trust in God. His approach to spiritual direction was rooted in encouragement, making people feel loved and capable of holiness.

Catholics celebrate the feast day of St. Francis de Sales on January 24 by reflecting on his message of gentle holiness. One meaningful way to honor him is by practicing kindness in speech and resisting anger or impatience, especially in difficult conversations. Reading a passage from Introduction to the Devout Life can help deepen one's spiritual life. Catholics may also pray for writers, journalists, and communicators, asking St. Francis de Sales to guide their words toward truth and charity. Above all, his feast day invites believers to seek sanctity through love in the ordinary moments of life.
