

May 31, 2026 † The Most Holy Trinity

Reflect today on the Most Holy Trinity. We were made to share in Their Life and Love. Though the fullness of the Trinity remains a mystery beyond human grasp, it is not beyond human encounter. Through grace, revelation, and contemplative union, God draws us to Himself—not to explain Himself, but to be consumed by Him. Celebrate this day by repeatedly praying one of the most ancient and simple prayers of the Church:
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen! Most Holy Trinity, I love You and trust in You!

God is Love and Loving

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity (Year A)

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. John 3:16-18

Saint John the Apostle is identified in his Gospel as “the disciple whom Jesus loved,” a title that appears multiple times and has been consistently understood in the Church’s tradition to refer to John himself (cf. John 13:23; 19:26; 20:2; 21:7; 21:20). By calling himself the beloved disciple, John was revealing his interior experience of the perfect love he encountered in Jesus. Certainly, Jesus loved everyone—equally and without limit. Yet John includes this personal designation not to claim favoritism, but to offer a personal testimony to the divine love made manifest in Christ’s humanity—love he experienced firsthand and which changed his life.

Love plays a central role in John’s writings—not only in his Gospel but also in his letters and the Book of Revelation. In his First Letter, likely written to the Christian communities he helped convert and shepherd, John declares: “God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him” (1 John 4:16). This is both a personal sentiment and a profound theological affirmation. John speaks from both divine inspiration and lived experience; he had walked with Love Incarnate. To say “God is love” is to profess that love is not something God merely does—it is who God is. God’s love is not a feeling, not sentimentality, but the pure, self-giving, eternal communion of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—a love that precedes and surpasses all creation.

That mystery lies at the very heart of today’s Solemnity. Because God is Love in His very essence, love naturally flows from His divine nature in superabundance. God loves because He is Love. Today’s Gospel reveals the most perfect expression of that divine essence: “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son...” This eternal, Trinitarian love is made visible in time when the Father sends the Son, conceived by the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Why does God give His Son? So that we might not perish but have eternal life. That is, so we may be drawn into the very life of God—into the Trinitarian communion of love. God desires to rescue us from condemnation and to share with us His Divine Existence. This is the essence of Divine Love. This is the Trinity. And this is the astonishing invitation extended to every soul: To believe in the Son is to begin participating in the eternal love that flows ceaselessly between the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit—a love that never ends. We are invited to be caught up by the love of God into Love Himself: the eternal communion of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Trinity Sunday is set apart on the Church’s calendar to renew our awe, deepen our understanding, and intensify our worship of the central mystery of our faith: that God is One in essence and Three in Persons. While every liturgy honors the Trinity—through prayer to the Father, in the Son, by the power of the Holy Spirit—this solemnity invites us to pause and gaze more intentionally into the inner life of God as it has been revealed to us. We do not celebrate a theological abstraction but a divine Personhood: the eternal exchange of love between the Father and the Son, perfectly expressed and eternally proceeding in the Holy Spirit.

HOLY ROSARY PARISH

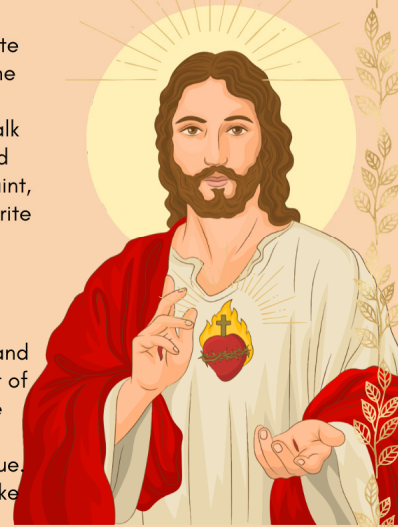

Sacred Heart of Jesus

During the month of June, children are invited to decorate a heart at home in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Families are encouraged to talk together about Jesus’ love and mercy. Children may color, paint, or decorate their heart and write a prayer intention or one way they hope to grow closer to Jesus this month.

Completed hearts will be collected at the end of June and placed in a basket at the foot of our Sacred Heart statue to be prayed for by our parish community led by Father Isaque.

“O Sacred Heart of Jesus, make our hearts like unto Thine.”

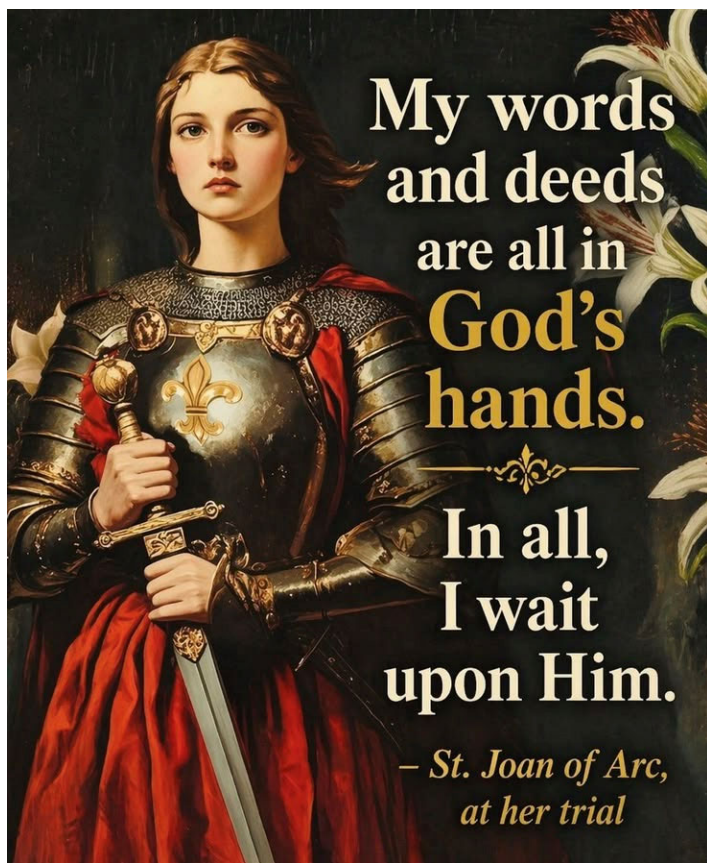

Hearts will be available in the church narthex (entrance) during the month of June. Instructions will be included with them!

Let us remember and pray for our beloved departed & especially for

Maria Pires

*“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace.”*

Joan of Arc (Jeanne d'Arc, in French) was born in 1412 in Domremy, a small village in France. Although she was not educated, Joan was very spiritual and spent many hours in prayer and in helping others. When she was 13, she began to hear "voices" that carried messages from God. By the time she was 17, she was certain God wanted her to aid King Charles VII of France in his fight against the English in what is now referred to as the Hundred Years' War.

At first, Charles's commander was dismissive, but when she successfully predicted the defeat of the French in Orléans and was able to pick out the king, who was in disguise, he relented. She was also examined by officials, who found her faith and honesty convincing, and did not declare her "voices" from God as heretical.

Battle and Betrayal

Dressed for battle, Joan led the army into Orléans, carrying a banner that bore the words Jesus, Maria; even though wounded, she captured the city, and led her army to more victories, which culminated in the crowning of Charles in the towns of Reims. While waging a battle for Compiegne, she was captured by the Burgundians. King Charles did nothing to negotiate for her release, and she was sold to the English, who turned her over to the French Bishop of Beauvais, a pawn in the Burgundian party.

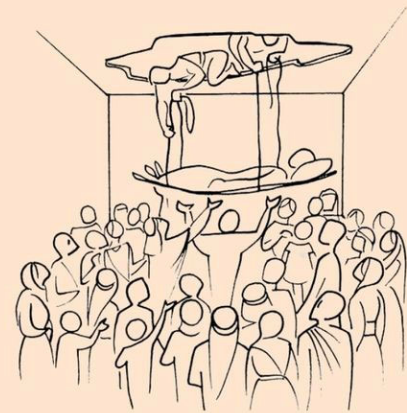

Death and Redemption

She was placed on trial in Rouen, where she was tricked into making inflammatory statements, and refused to retract any of them, especially those about her visions and voices. She was condemned to death as a heretic and was burned at the stake in 1431. Thirty years later, she was exonerated of her "crimes," but was not canonized until 1920.

O, mighty Lord, I pray that You will be my shield as I do battle against ignorance, cruelty and injustice. Through Your unending love, I pray that You will deliver me from my enemies, and that You will grant me goodness and steadfastness, so that I might lead others to do Your will and glorify Your name. Through the power of Christ, our Lord, Amen.
