

June 7, 2026 † The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

Reflect today on Jesus' unwavering clarity:

"Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you."

Believe what He says. The Eucharist is not a symbol; it is the greatest Divine Mystery on earth.

In the Eucharist, we kneel before God and consume Him—so that we may become what we eat:
the Mystical Body of Christ.

Spend a week with Mother Mary

Speaking of our Blessed Mother, the Statue of Our Lady of the Rosary continues making her pilgrimage to family homes. Families will be chosen or may request to take her home and pray together with their families for their special intentions as well as in thanksgiving of the blessing of our new church. The family will return her the following weekend at whichever Mass they attend. It is important to continue this special tradition as well as set an example of the importance of family prayer time.

*Almighty and eternal God, those who take refuge in you will be glad and forever will shout for joy.
Protect these soldiers as they discharge their duties.
Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm.
May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.*

THINGS EASED UP ON GUARDIAN ANGELS AFTER
AIR BAGS WERE INVENTED

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—Corpus Christi (Year A)

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” John 6:51–52

It must have been shocking to Jesus’ listeners the first time He boldly proclaimed that He would give His flesh as spiritual food. Their reaction makes this clear: “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” Jesus did not back down or soften what He had just proclaimed. Instead, He began a lengthy and direct discourse, starting with these words:

“Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.” (John 6:53–56)

What would you have thought had you been among the first hearers? We’re told the people quarreled, indicating division. Some, we later read, murmured among themselves, saying: “This saying is hard; who can accept it?” And tragically, many of Jesus’ disciples left Him and returned to their former way of life (cf. John 6:60–66).

Despite this apparent failure and loss of disciples, Jesus did not retract or revise His teaching. Instead, He turned to the Twelve and asked if they too wished to leave. Peter, with clarity and faith, responded with one of the most profound statements of discipleship in all of Scripture: “Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God” (cf. John 6:67–69).

In many ways, Peter’s words are as important for us today as Jesus’ own words introducing the Eucharist. Why? Because Peter shows us how to respond when we encounter divine mysteries beyond human understanding. The Eucharist is one of the most central of these mysteries.

Do you believe in the Eucharist? Do you believe that it is truly the flesh and blood of the Son of God—His Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity? Though many of us have learned this teaching from childhood and accept it on some level, few penetrate the depth of the mystery we behold at every Mass. Saint John Vianney spoke beautifully of the Eucharist, revealing his profound reverence for this Gift: “If we really understood the Mass, we would die of joy.” And: “There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us.” He also said: “How beautiful it is! After the Consecration, the good God is there as He is in Heaven.”

It’s easy to approach the Holy Mass out of routine rather than with the depth of faith possessed by the saints. But that must be our goal. We must believe that we would truly “die of joy” if we understood the Mass.

The Solemnity of Corpus Christi is our annual invitation to step back and reflect on what we believe—and how devoutly we participate in the Mass and receive Holy Communion. We need this reminder so that our worship and faith do not grow lax.

HOLY ROSARY PARISH

Sacred Heart of Jesus

During the month of June, children are invited to decorate a heart at home in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Families are encouraged to talk together about Jesus’ love and mercy. Children may color, paint, or decorate their heart and write a prayer intention or one way they hope to grow closer to Jesus this month. Completed hearts will be collected at the end of June and placed in a basket at the foot of our Sacred Heart statue to be prayed for by our parish community led by Father Isaquer. “O Sacred Heart of Jesus, make our hearts like unto Thine.”

Hearts will be available in the church narthex (entrance) during the month of June. Instructions will be included with them!
Bring your colored heart to Mass so that it can be displayed for all to see!

Our Next Bible Study will be on the Acts of the Apostles

This will be a 6-week study starting Wednesday, July 15-August 19 at 6pm in the Msgr. Minhoto Meeting Room. The study book above authored by Kevin Perrotta is available on Amazon.

This study is open to everyone!

Registration forms for Portuguese language & culture classes for the next school year are now being accepted. Classes begin on Monday, October 5th and end March 29th, 2027 and take place in Our Lady of the Assumption hall in Turlock. It is open to students from Kindergarten to Adults. Please email the coordinator at: MaryBorba7@gmail.com for a registration form.

Anthony was born in Portugal in 1185 and baptized as Ferdinand. At age 15, he entered the order of St. Augustine but soon left for a quieter monastery in Coimbra. There, he saw the bones of Franciscan martyrs from Morocco and was inspired to be like them, willing to give his life to spread the Gospel. He joined the Order of Friars Minor, to travel to Morocco; he adopted the name of Anthony, ready to start a new life.

Once in Morocco, though, Anthony became ill and had to go back to Portugal. But his ship was blown off course and landed in Italy instead. In Padua, Anthony lived a quiet, unassuming life – until he was asked to stand in as a speaker at an ordination. When he spoke to the group, this monk's gift for preaching was revealed, and his life changed forever.

The "Wonder Worker"

Anthony was such a magnetic, gifted speaker that huge crowds of people, sometimes up to 30,000 strong, came to hear him. Anthony often held mass outdoors, because no church was big enough to hold the crowds. His speeches were so powerful that they inspired enemies to reconcile, thieves to confess and heretics to convert. So many people were touched by Anthony's peacemaking efforts that he is known as the "wonder worker."

Another well-known nickname given to Anthony is "Finder of Lost Things." Legend has it that Anthony's favorite prayer book was stolen by a novice monk who was running away. Anthony prayed that the book be found, and an apparition then appeared before the novice, demanding the book's immediate return. Today, people ask for Anthony's intercession with God when they are searching for lost articles.

Dear Saint Anthony

You are the patron of the poor and the helper of all who seek lost articles. Help me to find the object I have lost so that I will be able to make better use of the time I will gain for God's greater honor and glory.

Grant your gracious aid to all people who seek what they have lost – especially those who see to regain God's grace.
