November 22, 2026 † Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Reflect today on the coming judgment of Christ. Consider whether He truly reigns as King over every aspect of your life—your thoughts, words, actions, relationships, and responsibilities. Then consider how you can help bring about His Kingdom in hearts, homes, and in the wider culture, so that when He comes in glory, you may be found among those at His right hand.

Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, You are the Lord of all creation, the Judge of every soul, and the only Savior of the world. We bow before You today in humble adoration, acknowledging Your sovereign authority over our lives, our nations, and our world. Reign in our hearts with the power of Your truth, purify our desires, and conform our lives to Your most holy will. May every soul in this world come to know and adore You in anticipation of that great and final day of Judgment. Jesus, I trust in You.

What is Hallow?

Through prayer and meditation rooted in the Catholic faith, Hallow helps people find peace and grow in faith, every day. As the #1 prayer app in the world, Hallow provides a wide variety of audio-guided meditation, prayer challenges, mental health content, sleep stories, and sacred music. Users are able to pray with Fr. Mike, Sr. Miriam, Jonathan Roumie, Bishop Barron, and many others.

How do I join our parish on Hallow?

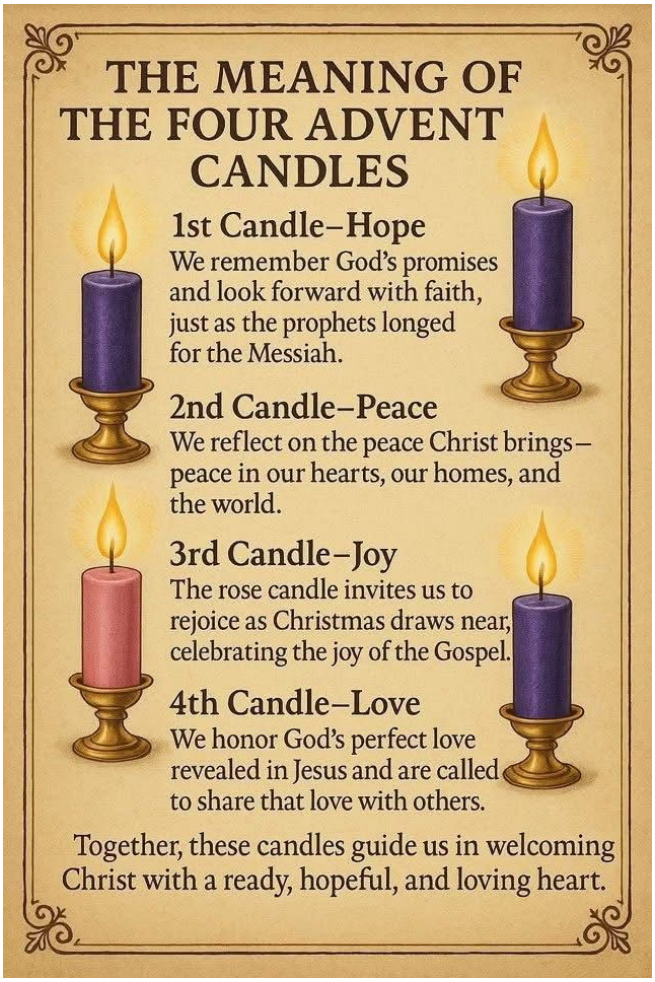

Everyone is invited to join our parish page on Hallow—free users and subscribers alike. There, you can create a profile, connect with friends, share and pray for one another's intentions, and participate in prayer challenges alongside the parish community. The steps are simple:

If you're new to Hallow:

- Download the Hallow app.
- Rather than following the prompts to create your account, begin at the church icon in the top right corner*.
- Search for our parish (use zipcode if needed) & Join.
- Continue creating your account by following the prompts. Some questions can be skipped.
- Join the prayer challenge and begin exploring all that's available!

If you already have a Hallow account:

- Open the Hallow app.
- Tap the Church tab at the bottom of the screen.
- Follow the prompts to complete your profile.
- Tap Explore and find our parish (enter parish zipcode if needed).
- Join the prayer challenge and begin exploring all that's available!

Christ the Universal King

The Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

"Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you gave me no welcome, naked and you gave me no clothing, ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.'"

Matthew 25:41-43

On June 11, 1899, Pope Leo XIII solemnly consecrated the entire human race to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a moment he regarded as the "great act" of his pontificate. This consecration was rooted in the sacred truth that, "[Christ's] empire includes not only Catholic nations, not only baptized persons… but also all those who are outside the Christian faith; so that truly the whole of mankind is subject to the power of Jesus Christ" (Annum Sacrum, 3).

This prophetic act of entrustment was followed by decades of growing unrest. By the 1920s, the world had plunged into political and social turmoil. In the wake of World War I, secularism spread rapidly across nations, while communist and fascist ideologies took root, leading countless souls to question and even abandon their faith. The longstanding relationship between faith and civil governance that had been woven deeply into the fabric of European life since the fourth century began to unravel. God's sovereignty over nations was no longer acknowledged, and humanity increasingly placed its trust in itself.

In response to this spiritual and societal decline, Pope Pius XI recognized the urgent need to proclaim once more the universal kingship of Christ. He understood that when God's authority and divine law are excluded from public life, society drifts toward moral confusion and ruin. To counter this, he instituted the Feast of Christ the King in 1925, reminding the Church and the world that there is only one true King who is not only the King of Catholics and Christians, but the King of all humanity, the King of every nation, the King of the entire Universe.

As we celebrate this glorious solemnity on the final Sunday of the Liturgical Year, we are invited to recall and reaffirm Christ's universal kingship. Across the world, many do not follow Christ or acknowledge Him as Lord. Some adhere to false religions, embrace secular ideologies, or reject God and religious practice altogether.

Today's Gospel is a powerful reminder that, regardless of one's beliefs or unbelief, all will stand before Jesus Christ, the King of the Universe, and be judged by Him alone at the end of their earthly lives. No matter what creed one accepts or rejects, Christ remains the universal King and the sole Judge of all. To some He will say, "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." To others He will declare, "Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels." Judgment by Christ is inescapable. Those who reject Him in this life cannot say at death, "You have no right to judge me!" Jesus alone possesses that right and will exercise it with the perfect union of divine justice and mercy, seeing into the depths of every soul.

Grasping the universal and exclusive nature of Christ's kingship will inspire us to evangelize so as to draw every soul to Him and to work diligently to bring Christ into every sphere of human life, including governance. In nations where the separation of Church and State is the norm, we must remember that while Church leaders rightly refrain from wielding civil authority, this does not mean that Jesus Christ is to be excluded from public life. On the contrary, He must remain at the center of all human governance, just as He will be at the end of time when He holds all people accountable to His divine will.

Rite of Catechumen · December 19th at 5:30pm
